Dear Mr. Strickland,

I apologize for the delay in getting this information off to you.

I have made attempts to contact the last George C. Slawson listed on the paper, but have been unsuccessful. If you ever run across the book he was suppose to have written, please let me know.

My grandfather was Baronus La Fayette,
the last name on the right side.

I hope this information is of some help, and if there are any questions you have or if I can be of any further assistance, please feel free to write me.

Sincerely,
W. C. Slawson

On October 31, 1977 we visited with Mr. J. B. Sandra in Center, Texas. He said that Mr. Slawson who wrote the history of De Soto Parish, La. was dead. He thought Mr. Slawson's wife was still living in Mansfield, La.
We then proceeded to Mansfield, La. In checking at a grocery store we found that Mrs. Slawson had moved to Arkansas after her husband's death.

Dear Mr. Slawson:

Thank you so much for the information you sent on the Slawsons. It gave me some very good clues to locations to search for my E. W. Slawson.

I am continuing my research on this family and if I find anything on any of them will let you know. Will try to contact George C. Slawson and see if I can find out where I can look at a copy of his book and maybe xerox a copy of it. The Library of Congress may have a copy of it.

Thanks again and I will write again when I have some information for you.

Sincerely Yours,
